Certified Scrum Product Owner
Frequently Asked Questions

skillfully

- How long is the course?
  This is a two-day course. All in-person training includes a catered lunch and snacks throughout each day.

- Is there a virtual option?
  Yes. Agile42 offers a remote version of this course should you not be able to attend our Cape Town, Johannesburg, or Durban venues. For details, please enquire at admin@skillfully.co.za.

- How many seats are there per class?
  There are 20 seats available per class, and a strong focus on personalised facilitation by our trainer.

- How do I pay for the course?
  Payment is made via EFT. You will find the training provider's bank account details on the invoice. Payment is due two weeks prior to the course date.

- How do I get certified?
  Following the 2-day training, agile42 will register you with the Scrum Alliance®. You will need to accept your CSPO license before you can download your certificate from your Scrum Alliance® dashboard. There is no examination for CSPO training.

- Is this course recognised internationally?
  Yes, this course is internationally recognised.

- Will I earn Scrum Alliance points?
  You will earn 14 Scrum Education Units® (SEUs) and 14 Professional Development Units (PDUs).

- Is the certification included in the price?
  Yes, the Scrum Product Owner certification is included in the course fee as well as two-year membership of the Scrum Alliance®.

- Can I cancel my booking?
  The training provider requires notice of cancellation / postponement two weeks prior to the course start date.

- Does my certification expire?
  Your certification will expire after two years. To keep your certification active, you will need to renew it for a further two years. A renewal involves earning 20 Scrum Education Units® (SEUs) within the past two years that validate your participation and continued proficiency in the fundamental principles and practices of Scrum. You will also need to pay a renewal fee of $100.

- How can my company pay for my booking?
  Your company can pay via EFT. Once you have made a booking request, you will receive an invoice with the training provider's bank details.